History of the YMCA of Tyler Texas & Whitehouse Community YMCA

The YMCA of Tyler Texas was founded in 1953 by Mr. R. Walter Fair and a group of prominent Tyler citizens. Ground breaking for the YMCA facility was on June 22, 1958 by Mrs. Elizabeth Potter who donated the 5 acre site where her father, Congressman W. S. Herndon, a pioneer Tylerite, had built his home. On September 6, 1959 Judge Connaly McKay was the master of ceremonies at the dedication program for the YMCA of Tyler Texas.

The Whitehouse Community YMCA was opened on April 1, 2001 with the support of a 5 acre site that was donated by Acker Hanks to the City of Whitehouse. Texas Parks and Wildlife, the YMCA and generous community members contributed the funding to build the new YMCA.

The YMCA's mission statement: To put Christian principles into practice through programs that build a healthy spirit, mind and body for all.
